NOTES TO CANDIDATES:

11+ Design & Technology Scholarship Requirements

The Year 7 scholarship assessment will take the form of a conversation with your son/daughter about their experiences in design and making; products that they have made, design work they have completed, should be brought to be discussed.

- It would be advantageous if your son/daughter has taken part in Design & Technology lessons in their current school; if so we would like to see evidence of what they have designed and/or made – this may be in photographic form, but ideally it would be something physical that they could bring with them.
- A sketchbook/collection of sketches that communicate your son/daughter's sketching ability
- We are especially interested in anything your son/daughter has built themselves; perhaps in Lego (especially 'Technique' and/or 'Mindstorms'), Meccano or similar.
- Design/creative work completed electronically on Google Sketchup or similar apps and software would be favourable.

13+ Design & Technology Scholarship Requirements

The Year 9 scholarship process will take the form of a conversation with your son/daughter about their experiences in design and making, along with an evaluation of their design thinking. There may be a practical element to the interview which will look at your son/daughter's confidence in the workshop environment.

- It would be advantageous if your son/daughter has taken part in Design & Technology lessons in their current school; if so we would like to see evidence of what they have designed and/or made – this may be in photographic form, but ideally it will be something physical that they could bring with them to discuss
- A sketchbook/collection of sketches that communicate your son/daughter's sketching ability
- We are especially interested in your son/daughter's opinion on what 'good design' is, and what makes a product 'good'
- Design/creative work completed electronically on Google Sketchup or similar apps and software, would be favourable. They may be asked to create something on Google Sketchup or similar CAD software on the day

16+ Design & Technology Scholarship Requirements

The Year 12 scholarship process will take the form of a conversation with your son/daughter about their portfolio of work completed in Key Stage 3 & 4, along with their design knowledge and thinking

- We are especially interested in your son/daughter's opinion on what 'good design' is, and what makes a product 'good'
- They should be aware of how specific design movements of the past influence products and designs today
- They should be proficient at CAD (and as such, will be communicated in their portfolio of work)
- Your son/daughter may be asked to perform a practical piece of work
