NOTES TO CANDIDATES:

Music Scholarship requirements

Minimum Grade 5 or equivalent standard is required for 11+

Minimum Grade 6 or equivalent standard is required for 13+

Minimum Grade 8 or equivalent standard is required for 16+

1. Music Scholar applicants must perform on their first instrument (and on second/third if they have one):
 - a) Two pieces
 - b) Scales/Arpeggios
 - c) Sight-reading

2. Aural tests will include:
 - a) Rhythmic recognition
 - b) Melodic recognition
 - c) Aural music analysis
 - d) Sight-singing

3. Interview about their musical interests, achievements, activities etc.

Applicants must feel confident to 'show off' all their musical talent during the assessment. A reminder that we are looking for potential and therefore they must not feel worried about grades already achieved etc.

Candidates should also make the assessors aware of any other skills they have that might support their application for a music scholarship, e.g. music technology, sound and lighting, performing arts, composing etc.

Scholarship Testing

Assessments for selected candidates for Music Scholarships will take place week commencing Monday 7th January 2019.
